LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¼ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated September 25th, 1944.

R. S. STUART YATES,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

PRIVATE BILLS.

NOTICE.

NOTICE is hereby given that an application will be made to the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia, at its next session, on behalf of The British Columbia Insurance Company, for an Act to amend "The British Columbia Insurance Company Act, 1904," as amended by "The British Columbia Insurance Company Act, 1904, Amendment Act, 1934," providing for the following matters, namely:—

1. To amend section 1 of "The British Columbia Insurance Company Act, 1904," being chapter 57 of the Statutes of 1903-04, by striking out the words "G. W. Hobson, Insurance Agent; F. Carter-Cotton, Journalist; and George H. Cowan, Solicitor" in the first and second lines, and by substituting the following words: "Frank Henry Proby, Senior; Frank Henry Proby, Junior; Janet Irene Proby; and John Martyn Granville Proby."

2. To amend section 2 of the said chapter 57 by renumbering the present section as subsection (1) and by adding the following as subsection (2):—

"(2.) Subscriptions and allotments of capital stock of the Company prior to the date of the coming into force of this amendment shall be null and void."

Dated at Vancouver, B.C., this 29th day of January, 1946.

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

"SOCIETIES ACT."

CANADA:

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

No. 3009.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "Taxi Operators Association of Greater Victoria," has this day been incorporated as a Society under the "Societies Act."

The locality in which the operations of the Society will be chiefly carried on is Victoria, Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this twenty-fifth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and forty-six.

[L.S.] S. W. TAYLOR,
Registrar of Companies.

The objects of the Society are:—

(a.) To support and protect the character and status of the taxicab industry, and to raise the standard in general thereof in its connection with the public, with particular application to all taxicab owners and operators carrying on business in and about Greater Victoria:

(b.) To promote honourable business dealings with the public and with one another; to decide all questions of public ethics, co-operation, and courtesy between or amongst the members of the Society, and to further such ethics in the members' dealings with the public:

(c.) To consider all questions affecting the interests of the taxicab industry, with special regard to effecting legislation making its mandatory that all members' cars operating shall carry public-liability and property-damage and passenger-hazard insurance, and for mechanical inspection, and, in due course the installation of taxi-meters; to originate and promote improvement in the law and, if thought expedient, to oppose alteration therein; and in general to watch over and protect the interests of the members of the Association, both between themselves and with the public:

(d.) To take up, on behalf of any members, legal or other proceedings involving any matter of common interest to the Society as a whole:

(e.) To advance the working conditions of the operators of the Society members, more particularly by educating them in "safety-first" precautions:

(f.) To purchase, take on lease, or otherwise acquire any lands, tenements, and hereditaments, and any real or personal property which may be desired or deemed useful in connection with, or incidental to, any of the objects of the Society, and to hold, improve, manage, sell, mortgage, dispose of, or otherwise to deal with or encumber the same:

(g.) To enter into any arrangements with the Government or with any authority (municipal, local, or otherwise) which may seem conducive to the Society's objects, and to obtain from any such authority any such rights, privileges, or concessions which the Society may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such rights, privileges, and concessions:

(h.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Society not immediately required upon such security and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(i.) To borrow, raise, or secure the payment of moneys in such manner as the Society may think fit, and in particular by the issue of bonds or debentures charged upon all or any of the Society's property, subject to the provisions of section 10 of the "Societies Act," or by mortgage or charge upon all or any of the property of the Society, and to redeem and pay off such securities:

(j.) To make, draw, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, debentures, or other negotiable and transferable documents:

(k.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property or rights of the Society, and to sell and dispose of the undertaking of the Society or any part thereof:

(l.) To amalgamate with any other society having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Society:

(m.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainments of the above objects, and generally to transact any business which, in the opinion of the manager or the directors, may be for the benefit of the Society and in which this Society may lawfully engage.

(g.) To construct, outfit, supply, and operate a photographic studio and a moving-picture establishment; to produce films and photo plays; and to do all things necessary or convenient for the extension, maintenance, and operation of such a business, and for the accommodation, transportation, supply, and maintenance of persons engaged in the same:

(h.) To set up, establish, and operate radio or similar apparatus, with or without broadcasting facilities, together with towers, masts, and all other accessories relating to the subject-matter of this or the preceding subclause or any part or parts thereof:

(i.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and obtain exclusive and other interests in copyrights and rights of representation, and any other rights of or in plays, music, songs, cinematograph, and other films, words, operas, comedies, burlesques, and compositions:

(j.) To subdivide any of the lands of the Company, and to lay out the whole or any part or parts thereof as a subdivision, and to dedicate any part or parts thereof for roads, highways, or rights-of-way:

(k.) To conduct, maintain, and operate a hospital or sanatorium on any lands of the Company, and to carry on any other business which can conveniently be carried on in connection therewith:

(l.) To construct, purchase, lease, charter, maintain, and operate boats of all kinds, whether of a commercial or sporting nature, or partly commercial and partly sporting:

(m.) To construct, operate, and maintain machine-shops:

(n.) To take and hold mortgages, hypothecs, liens, and charges to secure payment of the purchase price of any part of the Company's property sold by the Company, or any money due to the Company from purchasers, or advances made by the Company to purchasers for building purposes or other improvements:

(o.) To buy, sell, and otherwise deal in, either as wholesalers or retailers, farm and agricultural products, hay, grain, and feed of all kinds, milk and dairy products, fresh, canned, cured, dried, or smoked meats, fish, fruit, and vegetables of all kinds and descriptions, building materials, goods, wares, merchandise, machinery, and equipment of all kinds and descriptions whatsoever, and to carry on a general exporting and importing business:

(p.) To apply for, acquire, hold, and use water rights and water necessary for all or any of the purposes of the Company, and to develop the same:

(q.) To carry on any business incidental to the full and complete use and enjoyment of the properties and works of the Company or the manufacture and products thereof, and such other business as may be deemed expedient and conducive to the interests of the Company:

(r.) To improve, manage, work, develop, turn to account, and deal in and with any property, real or personal, acquired by the Company, or in which the Company is interested:

(s.) To sell, lease, convert into money, exchange, barter, grant easements, licences, or other rights over, or in any other way realize or dispose of the undertaking, property, assets, and effects of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as may be thought fit, and in particular for shares, stocks, or securities of any other company, either fully or partly paid up, and to acquire, hold, and deal with any such shares, stocks, or securities, and to accept payment for any property so sold by instalments:

(t.) To amalgamate with any other company, whether by sale or purchase (for shares or otherwise) of the undertaking or any part thereof, subject or not to the liabilities of this or any such other company, with or without winding up, or by sale or purchase (for shares or otherwise) of all the shares, stock, debentures, or other securities of this or any such other company, or in any other manner; and to enter into partnership, or any arrangement in the nature of partnership, or any joint purse or profit-sharing arrangement or joint adventure with any company or person:

(u.) To do all or any of the matters aforesaid in any part of the world, and either as principals or agents for others, and either in the name of the Company or of any person or company as trustee or agent of the Company, and either alone or in concurrence with any person, company, Government, or other body or authority:

(v.) To do all such other things as are, in the opinion of the directors, incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, and so that the word "company" throughout this clause shall be deemed to include (wherever the context shall so permit) any Government, body, authority, partnership, association, or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not, and whether registered or domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere:

(w.) The objects set forth in any sub-clause of this clause shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or by the name of the Company. None of such sub-clauses or the objects therein specified or the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclause of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause in any part of the world, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first sub-clause of this clause:

(x.) To acquire, erect, and maintain works, plant, and machinery for the creation of power to be used in the Company's operations:

(y.) To enter into an agreement with Victor Fleming for the purchase of lands, goods, chattels, and rights on Knapp Island, Victoria District, British Columbia, or usually held and enjoyed in connection with such land, at such price and for such consideration as the directors may approve.
